

RENEGADE HOCKEY 2002=03

Grand River's Boys' Hockey team won the Waterloo County Secondary School Athletics (WCSSA) beating Bluevale in the best two-out-of-three series 6-3 in the first game and 3-2 in second game over time.

Winning the McKerlie Classic (named in honour of former GRCI phys ed teacher Ray McKerlie) in December, the team thought it had a good shot at winning CWOSSA and proceeding to the all-Ontarios. But it was not in the cards.

Grand River lost in CWOSSA's first round to St.

John's of Brantford.

Goalie Scott Banton, who was a member of the Grand River team for the first time this year, said losing CWOSSA was a "big disappointment."

"We really wanted to get to OFSSA," Banton said.

However, he said he will take away the good memories of winning WCSSA, which he described as feeling "awesome" and hope the team will next year be able to continue Grand River's tradition of producing winning hockey teams.

This year's 16-member boys' hockey team was coached by Brian Millar, Darlene Crawly and Ray Massicotte
